PEACE & COMMERCE

Between the most Serene and Mighty PRINCE

CHARLES II.

By the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Christian Faith, &c.

AND

The most Illustrious Lords, the Bashaw, Dey, Aga, and Governours of the Famous City and Kingdom of Algiers: Concluded by the Honourable Arthur Herbert, Admiral of His Majesties Fleet in the Mediterranean Seas.

Article I.

N the First place itis Agreed and Concluded, That from this day, and for ever forwards, there be a true, firm and inviolable Peace between the most Serene King of Great Britain,

A 2

France

France and Ireland, Defender of the Christian Faith, &c. and the most Illustrious Lords, the Bashaw, Dey, Aga and Governours of the City and Kingdom of Algiers, and between all the Dominions and Subjects of either side, and that the Ships or other Vessels, and the Subjects and People of both sides shall not henceforth do to each other any harm, offence, or injury either in word or deed, but shall treat one another with all possible respect and friendship.

II.

That any of the Ships or other Vessels belonging to the said King of Great Britain, or to any of His Majesties Subjects, may safely come to the Port of Algiers, or to any other Port or Place of that Kingdom, there freely to Buy and Sell, paying the usual Customs of 10 per Cent. as in former times, for such Goods as they sell, and the Goods they sell not, they shall freely carry on Board without paying any Duties for the same; And that they shall freely depart from thence whensoever they please, without any stop or hindrance drance whatsoever. As to Contraband Merchandizes, as Powder, Brimstone, Iron, Planks, and all sorts of Timber sit for Building of Ships, Ropes, Pitch, Tar, Fusils, and other Habiliments of War, His said Majesties Subjects shall pay no Duty for the same to those of Algiers.

- malden

III.

That all Ships and other Vessels, as well those belonging to the said King of Great Britain, or to any of His Majesties Subjects, as those belonging to the Kingdom or People of Algiers, shall freely pass the Seas, and Trassick without any Search, hindrance or molestation from each other; and that all Persons, or Passengers of what Countrey so-ever, and all Moneys, Goods, Merchandizes and Moveables, to whatsoever People or Nation belonging, being on Board of any of the said Ships or Vessels, shall be wholly free, and shall not be stopped, taken or plundered, nor receive any harm or damage whatsoever from either party.

IV. That

IV.

That the Algiers Ships of War or other Vessels meeting with any Merchants Ships or other Vessels of His said Majesties Subjects, not being in any of the Seas appertaining to His Majesties Dominions, may send on Board One single Boat with Two Sitters onely, besides the ordinary Crew of Rowers, and that no more shall enter any such Merchant Ship or Vessel without express leave from the Commander thereof, but the Two Sitters alone, and that upon producing a Pass under the Hand and Seal of the Lord High Admiral of England and Ireland, or of the Lord High Admiral of Scotland, for the faid Kingdoms respectively, or under the Hands and Seal of the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of any of the said Kingdoms, that the said Boat shall presently depart, and the Merchant Ship or Vessel shall proceed freely on her Voyage, and that although for the space of Fifteen Months next ensuing after the Conclusion of this Peace, the said Commander der of the Merchant Ship or Vessel produce no such Pass, yet if the major part of the Seamen of the said Ship or Vessel be Subjects of the said King of Great Britain, the said Boat shall immediately depart, and the said Merchant Ship or Vessel shall freely proceed on her Voyage; But that after the said Fifteen Months, all Merchants Ships or Vessels of His said Majesties Subjects shall be obliged to produce such a Pass as aforesaid. And any of the Ships of War or other Veffels of His faid Majesty, meeting with any Ships or other Vessels of Algiers, if the Commander of any such Algier Ship or Vessel shall produce a Pass Firmed by the Chief Governours of Algiers, and a Certificate from the English Consul living there, or if they have no such Pass or Certificate, yet if for the space of Fifteen Months next ensuing the Conclusion of this Peace, the major part of the Ships Company be Turks, Moors, or Slaves belonging to Algiers, then the faid Algier Ship or Vessel shall proceed freely; But that after the said Fifteen Months, all Algiers Ships or Vessels shall be obliged to produce such a Pass and Certificate as aforesaid.

V.

That no Commander or other Person of any Ship or Vessel of Algiers shall take out of any Ship or Vessel of His said Majesties Subjects, any person or persons whatsoever, to carry them any where to be Examined, or upon any other pretence; nor shall they use any Torture or Violence to any person of what Nation or Quality soever, being on Board any Ship or Vessel of His Majesties Subjects, upon any pretence whatsoever.

VI.

That no Shipwrack belonging to the said King of Great Britain, or to any of His Majesties Subjects, upon any part of the Coast belonging to Algiers, shall be made or become Prize, and that neither the Goods thereof shall be Seized, nor the Men made Slaves; but that all the Subjects of Algiers shall do their best endeavours to save the said Men and their Goods.

VII. That

VII.

That no Ship, nor any other Vessel of Algiers shall have permission to be delivered up, or go to Sally, or any other place in Enmity with the said King of Great Britain, to be made use of as Corsairs or Sea Rovers against His said Majesties Subjects.

VIII.

That none of the Ships or other smaller Vessels of Algiers shall remain Crusing near or in sight of His Majesties City and Garison of Tangier, or of any other His Majesties Roads, Havens or Ports, Towns and Places, nor any ways disturb the Peace and Commerce of the same.

IX.

That if any Ship or Vessel of Tunis, Tripoli, or Sally, or of any other Place, bring any Ships, Vessels, Men or Goods belonging to any of His said Majesties Subjects, to Algiers, or to any Port or Place in that Kingdom, the Governours there shall not permit them to be sold within the Territories of Algiers.

X.

That if any of the Ships of War of the said King of Great Britain do come to Algiers, or to any other Port or Place of that Kingdom with any Prize, they may freely Sell it, or otherwise to dispose of it at their own pleasure, without being molested by any: And that His Majesties said Ships of War shall not be obliged to pay Customs in any sort; and that if they shall want Provisions, Victuals, or any other things, they may freely Buy them at the Rates in the Market.

XI.

That when any of His said Majesties Ships of War shall appear before Algiers, upon notice thereof given by the English Consul, or by the Commander of the said Ships to the Chief Governours of Algiers, Publick Proclamation mation shall be immediately made to Secure the Christian Captives; and if after that, any Christians whatsoever make their escape on Board any of the said Ships of War, they shall not be required back again, nor shall the said Consul or Commander, or any other His Majesties Subjects be obliged to pay any thing for the said Christians.

XII.

That from and after the time that the Ratification of this Treaty by the King of Great Britain, shall be delivered to the Chief Governours of Algiers, no Subjects of His said Majesty shall be Bought or Sold, or made Slaves in any part of the Kingdom of Algiers, upon any pretence whatsoever. And the said King of Great Britain shall not be obliged by vertue of this Treaty of Peace to Redeem any of His Subjects now in Slavery, or who may be made Slaves before the said Ratissication; But it shall depend absolutely upon His Majesty, or the Friends and Relations of the said Persons in Slavery, without any limitation or restriction of time, to Redeem such, and so many of them from time to time, asshall be thought fit, agreeing of as reasonable a Price as may be, with their Patrons or Masters for their Redemption, without obliging the said Patrons or Masters against their wills to fet any at Liberty, whether they be Slaves belonging to the Beylicque or Gally, or such as belong to the Bashaw, Dey, Governour, Aga, or any other persons whatsoever. And all Slaves being His Majesties Subjects, shall, when they are Redeemed, enjoy the advantage and benefit of abatements of the Duty due to the Royal House, and of the other Charges, by paying fuch reasonable Sums as any Slaves of other Nations usually pay when they are Redeemed.

XIII.

That if any Subject of the said King of Great Britain happen to die in Algiers, or in any part of its Territories, his Goods or Moneys shall not be Seized by the Governours, Judges, or other Officers of Algiers (who shall likewise make no enquiry after the same) but the said Goods or Moneys shall be possessed or received received by fuch person or persons whom the Deceased shall by his last Will have made his Heir or Heirs, in case they be upon the place where the Testator deceased. But if the Heirs be not there, then the Executors of the faid Will, lawfully Constituted by the Deceased, shall after having made an Inventory of all the Goods and Moneys left, take them into their Custody without any hindrance, and shall take care the same be remitted by some safe way, to the true and lawful Heirs; and in case any of His said Majesties Subjects happen to die not having made any Will, the English Consul shall possess himself of his Goods and Moneys upon Inventory, for the use of the Kindred, and Heirs of the Deceased.

XIV.

That no Merchants being His Majesties Subjects, and residing in, or Trading to the City and Kingdom of Algiers, shall be obliged to buy any Merchandizes against their Wills; but it shall be free for them to buy such Commodities as they shall think fit, and no Captain or Commander of any Ship or Vessel fel belonging to His said Majesties Subjects, shall be obliged against his Will, to Lade any Goods to carry them, or make a Voyage to any Place he shall not have a mind to go to: And neither the English Consul, nor any other Subject of the said King, shall be bound to pay the Debts of any other of His Majesties Subjects, except that he or they become Sureties for the same by a publick act.

XV.

That the Subjects of His said Majesty in Algiers, or its Territories, in matter of Controversie, shall be liable to no other Jurisdiction but that of the Dey, or Duan, except they happen to be at difference between themselves, in which case they shall be liable to no other Determination but that of the Consul onely.

XVI.

That in case any Subject of His said Majesty being in any part of the Kingdom of Algiers happen to Strike, Wound, or Kill a Turk or a Moor, if he be taken, he is to be punished in the same manner, and with no greater severity then a Turk ought to be, being guilty of the same Offence; but if he escape, neither the said English Consul, nor any other of His said Majesties Subjects, shall be in any sort questioned and troubled therefore.

XVII.

That the English Consul now, or at any time hereafter living in Algiers, shall be there at all times with entire Freedom and Safety of his Person and Estate, and shall be permitted to choose his own Druggerman and Broker, and freely to go on Board any Ships in the Road, as often and when he pleases, and to have the liberty of the Countrey; And that he shall be allowed a Place to Pray in, and that no man shall do him any Injury in word or deed.
